PRESS RELEASE

July 27, 2009

JOIN THE FRANKLIN POLICE DEPARTMENT IN THE 2009 JIMMY FUND CANISTER DRIVE

The Massachusetts Chiefs of Police Association (MCOPA) has once again joined forces with the Jimmy Fund to make a difference in the lives of cancer patients now and in the future. The MCOPA have played an essential role for the Jimmy Fund over the past 56 years, and continue to support the cancer research and care at Dana-Farber Cancer Institute in Boston through the 2009 Jimmy Fund Canister Drive.

Franklin Police Chief Stephen Williams will be participating in his 6th year of the Jimmy Fund Walk when he walks with the children affected by cancer, their families and other Massachusetts Chiefs on September 13, 2009.

"Jimmy Fund canisters will be on display in local Franklin businesses from now throughout September," said Chief Williams. "We have always relied on the generosity of the businesses and residents of Franklin to make our fundraising for the fight against cancer a success".

Located on countertops across the area, the canisters offer stores' patrons an opportunity to join the Massachusetts Chiefs of Police in their quest to raise more than $200,000 for the Jimmy Fund in the coming months.

Please join the Franklin Police Department and the Massachusetts Chiefs of Police Association on the front lines of this fight.
